TBI: There's Always Something that Works!

TIM FEENEY, PH.D.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Learning objectives

1. Learn practical approaches to support individuals in the development of self-regulation
2. Identify key strategies for providing collaborative support for individuals with significant challenging behaviors.
3. Have the opportunity to have their questions answered and get help with real situations that they provide.

Participants will be encouraged to actively provide information and solutions to questions
